Re: Copyright Printing Authorization

The Oil Posse Team, developed by Amy Moore, provides marketing material to all Young Living members (the public, per se). Our copyright is to protect the design we developed from being claimed by others to be their own design.

Our copyright has nothing to do with duplication of what we provide. Therefore, we hereby give permission for all printing services (Staples, Office Depot, VistaPrint, etc.) to provide copies of any material we provide.

Printing services are released from any liable action that comes from duplicating our marketing material (designs).

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Amy Moore', with a stylized flourish at the end.
